

GOVERNOR ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

PROCLAMATION

The manufacturing industry is a driving force behind our national economy, employing more than 15 million people and generating 16 percent of our Gross Domestic Product. Manufacturing accounts for two-thirds of research and development in the United States and two-thirds of our country's exports of goods and services.

California is home to many of the most innovative and productive manufacturers in the world, and our manufacturing industry employs 1.5 million Californians. During California Manufacturing Week, we reaffirm our commitment to the success of our manufacturing industry in today's competitive global marketplace. We also recognize the importance of a thriving manufacturing sector in fueling California's economic growth and building a promising future for our state.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim June 20-26 2004, as "California Manufacturing Week."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have here unto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 17th day of June 2004.
